Basic Send-in Instructions

Mail your watch to the address shown below.

Be sure to include a note with your return address and your email address.

We will use your email address to send you an estimate, if needed.

We do not email you when your watch is received but you can follow the status of the repair online at www.parsecent.com.

Click on “get status” and you will be presented with a input area to enter your job number. If you do not know your job number, you can enter your email address.
